

56th Annual Louisiana Beekeepers Association Convention Honey Contest

Requirements:

One entry is composed of three 1 lb., queenline glass jars in one color class. There are typically three color classes: light, amber, and dark. One family may enter one color class (three jars), two color classes (six jars), or three color classes (nine jars). There should be no labels or markings on the jars. You must be a current, or new, paid-up member of Louisiana Beekeepers Association. You may bring honey for someone else as long as they are a paid member. Honey must have been harvested this year. Deadline to bring your honey is noon, Friday, December 1, 2017 (Country Inn and Suites, 2727 Monroe Hwy 165 Pineville, LA 71360). Winning entry will be announced Saturday during the Convention.

Standards and tips for judging:

Entries will be placed into color categories. Surface of the jar will be inspected for overall clarity, cleanliness, and consistency. Aroma and flavor of the honey is taken into account. Inside of jar, lid, and the surface of honey are inspected for cleanliness. Moisture content will be tested. 1st through 3rd Place will be awarded for each color class.
